ADDRESS.

Brethren of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Through the blessings of Divine Providence, we have been permitted, after another Masonic year has passed, to assemble in Annual Communication around the altar which we have from time to time been accustomed to meet and offer up our devotions and renew our vows of fidelity and pledge again our faith to maintain inviolate from the ravages of the barbarous foe, the mildew of time or the crush and downfall of Republics and States, the sacred archives and land-marks of the Order, which have been for a while committed to our trust. How thankful should we be to Him, who, with parental solicitude, has watched our wayward wanderings and permitted us again to assemble in this consecrated and loved spot which is ever dear to the Mason's heart, diffusing, as it does, the glorious principles of the order.

Here we can, for a while, retire from the turmoils, strife, carnage and confusion incident to a civil or political revolution like the present, and offer up anew our devotions to Him who has vouchsafed to guide and direct us in our pilgrimage to that Temple not made with hands eternally in the heavens.

We have met under peculiar circumstances; a terrible war is upon us; its horrors are experienced alike by the rich and poor, the proud and the humble, all classes and conditions of our once happy people. The cloud, which at one time, to the eye of the grasping politician, seemed "no larger than a man's hand," has gradually spread like a mighty pall over the entire horizon of our country, enshrouding it in gloom, belching forth horrid lightnings, filling every heart with consternation, obliterating each star of hope and giving no promise of a happier and brighter future. The little stream of strife, which but three years ago, seemed so small and insignificant in itself as to give no promise of danger in the future, and which many an idle dreamer promised to dam up without difficulty or delay, has swollen into a mighty stream, a torrent, whose waves are red with the blood of slaughtered heroes, whose impetuous contents no human hand can stay, into whose awful chasm the rights, the institutions, the laws and usages of a free people are fast crumbling to be lost forever, and upon whose trembling banks two astonished nations stand aghast at their own folly and wickedness, bewildered by the huge proportions of the strong cataract, and sighing for the blessings that have been engulfed beneath its angry waves. Each family mourns its loss by the death and mutilation of some honored member; hearts are sorrowful that only thrilled with joy before; eyes are filled with briny tears that only flashed with pride or joy or hope in other days; her anxious suspense and her deep sorrow calls upon Heaven for comfort. For there is no help here below; childhood, innocent childhood, has forgotten the toys and sports in which it once delighted, and awaits in sullen sorrow the return of parents or brothers from the field of blood and carnage. Temples of learning are closed or deserted, the marts of trade are empty, commerce is banished from our streams; the solemn toll of the funeral bell is heard continually through the land; gaunt hunger walks abroad at noon-day and startles opulence itself by its fearful presence. The booming of artillery, the roar of the deadly musket, the strong notes of the invigorating drum, the shouts, the cries, the groans of contending armies, the shrieks of widowed wives and fatherless children, and all that tells of a bloody and terrible war, are heard from the Potomac to the Gulf. The plot thickens perpetually, the night grows darker, the storm gathers, peace with its blessings, seems more distant than ever. Such is the condition of the country at this moment, such is the picture which truth constrains me to draw of our once happy and prosperous land. It does not become me to discuss those measures which have been elsewhere proposed, for the solution of the difficulties by which an unhappy fate has surrounded us.

It is pre-eminently proper, however, that I should recall the fact, that other nations before us have purchased the sacred boon of freedom at a cost equally as great by the expenditure of their best blood, the loss of their noblest patriots, the sufferings, the sacrifices, the agony of all classes of their people. It is perfectly right that I should dwell on the fact, that Masonry is not dazzled by the pomp, glitter and splendor of war, but that her votaries have won for themselves a name upon the historian's page, while gallant deeds are appreciated and liberty has a temple upon the earth; that upon an hundred gloomy fields and in the midst of death's most wide and fearful carnival, they have taught posterity a lesson of true heroism, of unwavering courage, of patriotic martyrdom that will be remembered with gratitude and reverence until time shall be no more. An unfortunate combination of circumstances has, however, divided us; whether it be that the war was not a necessity, and that the hearts of our people are not in it; whether there is power have been and are incompetently through ignorance or bigotry or prejudice, to direct the struggle; whether the administration or its enemies have sown the seed of discord with the vain hope of reaping future personal or political harvest, I am not called upon to decide; the fact is plain that disagreements do exist; that we are not standing shoulder to shoulder; yet over those things, masonry has no control.

The groans of the battle field have reverberated and, must in a short time be echoed again in sighs of intense bereavement from thousands of desolated hearths, and the cries and lamentations of the widowed mother and orphaned children; will ascend to heaven in appeals to him whose ears are ever open to their appeals; and whose strong arm is vouchsafed to protect and defend them. Be it is, who must stay the present tornado and again bring peace to a distracted country and quiet to the homes and firesides of his people. We have only pictured a scene of war and desolation that has actually taken place; the returning soldier brings and will still bring many sorrows to his home from the infernal camp. Our country is demoralized; treasures are expended which would have built thousands of churches whose spires would have pointed the way-worn traveler to that spiritual temple whose builder and maker is God. It would have built Universities, hospitals, &c., or have bound together continents with rails of iron. If this great treasure which is now being expended by our Northern brethren, were sunk in the sea, it would be a great calamity, but it is to be applied and expended in a most unholy crusade, against those who have repeatedly asked, to be permitted to separate from those with whom they cannot live in peace. Yea, it is to be expended in severing the veins and arteries of human life and exterminating, if possible, the Southern fathers, sons, wives and daughters. May the great Architect of the universe yet open the eyes of those—our enemies—to see the atrocity of the crime they are now committing against us, and stay the hand that would be guilty of so foul a deed, should be the sincere wish of every Mason in every clime on the habitable globe.

Masonry is not exempted from the evils which fall to the lot of humanity. She, in common with other institutions, has been assailed by her enemies, and the blood of her followers has been made to flow unto the earth; she has been literally drenched with the same, and chains and dungeons have been their doom; the rack and wheel have loudly responded to the groans of her victims, yet she has remained unhurt by the ignorance, superstition and tyranny of her enemies. Kingdoms and empires have risen and had their days of glory and renown, and have again crumbled into the dust, but Masonry remains the same and will ever remain the same so long as the great Jehovah has a people upon the earth. War may devastate and lay waste the most beautiful portions of God's creation; nations may be annihilated and republics crumble to the dust, yet, Masonry will remain the same through all the mutations of time, and by the aid of her enlightened philanthropy and pure and holy views of religion, she has been enabled to soar aloft to the regions of Heaven and dip her broad pencil in the clouds of charity and spread the cement of brotherly love and affection through earth's remotest bounds. She has scattered bands and mobs, extinguished the flames and unbound the victim at the stake, and shed her genial rays in every part of the habitable globe, and her influence is felt by the distressed in every clime; the widow's thanks and the orphan's tears, are made to flow as her grateful encomiums, and friendship hails her with gratitude in every clime. She promotes the kindly intercourse, not only of individuals but of nations, and softens the asperities and diminishes the horrors of war, and acts in aid and concert with our holy religion in alleviating all the sufferings of man in the present world, thereby preparing him for an admittance into the Holy of Holies or Sanctuary, there to enjoy the presence of the great I Am, through endless ages.

I desire to call the attention of the members of this body to a resolution passed at your last annual communication, requiring the Grand Treasurer and myself to dispose of St. John's College and apply a portion of the proceeds to the payment of the outstanding liabilities. Bro. Hutchings, Grand Treasurer, and myself advertised the sale of the property, but owing to the unsettled condition of the country and consequent derangement of the currency, I thought it prudent to correspond with the creditors of the Grand Lodge, and ascertain, if possible, the amount of our indebtedness, and also what they were willing to take as currency in the payment of their claims. Bro. Jno. Berry being the principal creditor, I addressed him a note, and I did not receive, as I thought, a satisfactory answer. I was under the necessity of again writing him on the subject, stating, in such plain language, the questions I desired him to answer, that I thought it impossible for any misinterpretation of the same to be made. I soon afterwards received from him an answer in which he declined to receive in payment of his claim, as I understood him, anything except North Carolina State Bonds issued prior to the present revolution; hence, after consultation with the Grand Treasurer and other distinguished Brethren, we determined to postpone the sale for the present, believing it our duty we owed the Grand Lodge and the Fraternity of the State. The present condition of the currency is such that any sale we might have been able to have made, would in our opinion, have been detrimental to the interest of this body, and could not have resulted in accomplishing the wishes and the views of those who ordered a sale of the property. Brethren, how far we have succeeded in acting for the interest of Masonry in regard to this subject, is for this Grand Lodge to determine.

I beg leave to suggest the propriety of raising, at this communication, a sinking fund, for the purpose of extinguishing the debt. I think this far preferable to selling the property, and am fully satisfied the Craft in North Carolina will sustain, cordially, any plan you in your wisdom may adopt for that purpose.

The subject of initiation fees is one that deserves your consideration, and I hope you will increase the sum to ——— for the ensuing Masonic year. Also the dues of the Subordinate Lodges in this body, should, for the same period, be increased in an equal ratio.

I have granted, during the present Masonic year, Dispensations in several instances to various Lodges for the purpose of correcting irregularities unavoidable in the present condition of the country. In only one instance have I granted a dispensation for the purpose of forming of a new Lodge; that was granted to Bro. J. A. Prather and others, to open a Lodge in Jefferson, Ashe county, the petition of those brethren having been properly recommended under the seal of ——— Lodge, No. —.

Application has been made to me in two or three instances for Dispensations to open Military Lodges; one in South Carolina and the others in Virginia. I have declined to grant either of the Dispensations for reasons which I think are sufficiently strong, believing in fact that my jurisdiction and right to establish Lodges, was strictly confined to the limits of North Carolina, and that my compliance with the request of those petitioners would have been an infringement upon the jurisdiction and rights of the Grand Masters of those States respectively. I know some of the Grand Masters in the Southern States differ with me on this point, and Bro. Fellows,

G. M. of Louisiana, exercises the prerogative to grant Dispensations for opening Lodges in other jurisdictions, but at present I leave this subject to be decided by an impartial judgment of the Masonic Fraternity.

The present crisis in the political history of our unhappy country, is one in which the ancient landmarks of the order are most likely to be violated. Hence the importance of those who preside over the Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction, having their minds well informed upon our ancient customs and usages. Free masonry, as the most ancient and universal of all societies, is governed by laws and rules of action which are peculiar to herself and which have sprung out of her own organization. Difference of opinion has existed among Masonic writers as to what the landmarks properly are. It is not our purpose, at this time, to enter into any notice of the various opinions which have been promulgated by the many authors who have written on this subject, but simply to impress upon the minds of the brethren present, the vast importance, to the craft, that in their various duties they should not suffer anything to cause a departure from the landmarks of the order. Blackstone has truly said, "the goodness of a custom depends upon its having been used time out of mind, or in the solemnity of our legal phrase, time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." This it is that gives it its "weight and authority." All this may, with great force, be applied in the precise terms, to the landmarks of Free Masonry.

The characteristic peculiarity of the landmarks of Masonry is, they are unchangeable. No Grand Lodge has the right or power to enact any new landmarks, neither has it the right or prerogative of abolishing any of those that now exist. What they were in the beginning of the institution, they must ever remain and must continue in force until Masonry itself shall cease to exist. Fortunate it is for the stability of Masonry that her landmarks so unchangeable should exist; they stand as bulwarks, which to the intelligent Mason, are insurmountable, and control and check innovations. Should they sometimes be inadvertently violated in the excitement and haste of Masonic legislation, the reflective and conscientious Mason are soon again brought back under their benign influence and will preserve that uniformity of character and general design which constitutes the great universality of the institution.

Frequent applications having been made to me during the past Masonic year, in regard to one of the landmarks of the Order, I deemed it due the members of this body that I should give or call your attention to the same, that is, the qualification of candidates for initiation during the revolution that now exists. Many of our worthy young men have been disabled and maimed for life, and yet many of them after returning home, have been and are still applying for admission into the Lodge. We regret that those who are true and trusty, and have served their country with such fidelity, should, by such misfortunes, be debarred from entering our portals and enjoying the lights which Masonry affords, but such is the nature of our institution, without a violation of one of its most important landmarks which plainly tell us that the candidate must have "no maim or defect about his body that may render him incapable of learning the art." Thus are excluded, the blind, the deaf, the dumb, and those having but one foot, and those having but one hand, none of them can learn and teach the rituals of the order. This landmark being of such plain interpretation, you may think it entirely unnecessary on my part to call the attention of so intelligent a body as this, to the subject, but when considered in its true light, you, I think, will agree with me that its importance is a sufficient reason for your attention being called to the subject, hoping thereby to cause to be avoided by the Subordinate Lodges, an infringement of the same.

The oral landmarks of the Order are of no less importance than the written, and he who has the honor to preside over the craft, no matter in what position, should make it his constant study to have his mind well stored with the Ancient Constitution of the Order and the oral traditions of the same, thereby being the better qualified to fulfill any position to which he may be called by his brethren.

Those who have the honor to be called by their brethren to preside over the craft, should be thoroughly instructed in the lectures, well acquainted with the ceremonies and complete in all the degrees of Free Masonry. But Masonry is a science and an art of great magnitude and extent. A knowledge of her mystery is not to be obtained at once by the initiate, but is attainable only by the industrious craftsmen, and then only by degrees. By much instruction and assiduous application, are advances only made. Every step is progressive and opens new light and information in proportion to the capacity of the mind of the initiate to receive the same. According to the progress we make we limit or extend our inquiries, and in proportion to that capacity, we attain to a less or greater degree of perfection. It is not him who knows the names and understands the application of the various working tools and implements of the craft, that is thereby furnished to every good work, but he only who uses them and applies them to his intellect.

tual, moral and social edification, that is the workman that need not be ashamed to exhibit to the Grand Architect of the universe, a specimen of his work which will not be cast, at the day of final accounts, among the rubbish as work unfit for the builder's use, but work that will bear the test of the Grand Overseer's square, and be pronounced by him as work fit and prepared for a place in that temple and building prepared for the faithful. Therefore, in exhorting you to use every effort to be perfect in Masonry, I intend, not merely that you should be expert in giving the lectures, or eager to rise rapidly through the different degrees of the same, but that you should enter fully into the spirit of its most solemn rites, and should endeavor to learn the full import of its interesting symbols; that you should be perfect in the knowledge and in the application of its principles, in the full possession of the virtues it expects, and in the discharge of all the moral and christian duties it enjoins.

Among the great variety of duties incumbent upon us, we should ever remember that there is none more essential to the preservation or more efficacious to the good and welfare of our institution than unanimity of action, brotherly love and charity. This makes the cement, the great and living principle of cohesion, which gives compactness to all the parts and members of the mystic tie, forms them into a regular structure, into one uniform, beautiful and mystic building, and adds harmony, friendship, and stability to the whole. 'Or it may with propriety be linked to the key-stone which connects and strengthens the arch upon which the edifice is supported and upheld. Brotherly love is the life and soul of all societies, and must be much more so of those who pretend to associate together upon the noble maxims of charity; it is the golden chain which binds together our ancient order, the life principle on which depends its internal harmony and outward prosperity.

As in the erection of the spacious Temple of Solomon, everything was so prepared that "there was neither hammer nor axe, nor any iron tool heard" in the house which it was building, so of the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons: they always perfected their work by quiet and orderly methods without the least sound of the hammer of contention, the axe of division or any other tool of discord, being perfectly joined together in the same mind and the same judgment; walking by the same rule and following and teaching the same principles, having but one interest and one object, the benefit and advancement of the whole.

Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth and good will towards men, is and should be the disposition and desire of every Free and Accepted Mason. With such a temper, my brethren, we will enjoy the satisfaction of an approving conscience, the approbation and concurrence of all the wise and good, and the God of love and peace will be with us. That Divine Being who is the author of all peace and the lover of concord, will render our endeavors successful and reward them with the blessings of time and the glories of eternity.

The special connection and relation in which I have stood to you during the past Masonic year, now ceases, but the affection connected with it and the heart-felt gratitude arising from it, will ever remain, and while I wish you, each, to accept my best wishes as I am certain you share the best affections of my heart. Any errors which I may have committed in the discharge of the duties incumbent upon me as the Grand Master of a sovereign State, have been errors of the head and not of the heart, and it affords me much satisfaction to know they are in the hands of a kind and affectionate brethren who are ever ready to throw the mantle of charity over the follies of their erring brethren.

My particular thanks are due the officers and members of the Grand Lodge for the honors with which they have distinguished me, and I entreat them to accept my warmest acknowledgements for their assistance and kindness. I should be inexorably insensible not to feel, and feeling, criminally neglectful and ungrateful not to express, the many obligations which I owe them.

My brethren, your labors in Grand Communication will soon be brought to a close; this should forcibly remind you of the last solemn parting, when death shall separate you from those whom you have cordially loved whose society made you the charm of your most privileged moments, and to whom, under Providence, you owe no small part of your prosperity and happiness. Let us ever remember then, my brethren, that death is hastening, for a time to intercept, but that cannot dissolve our union. Not virtuous attachments are eternal; they are renewed in Heaven. We meet again there in Grand Communication where the Grand Master of the universe presides, to arise no more.

E. F. WATSON, G. M.

The Grand Secretary submitted his annual report, which was read and submitted to the Committee on his books.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In submitting this my brief report, I have nothing of much importance to communicate to your body.

I had some 650 copies of the last Grand Lodge proceedings printed and sent off to 115 Lodges, 650 copies to each Lodge, but I am much concerned to hear that some of the Lodges have failed to receive their usual supply. I beg leave to say that the cause of this failure is no fault of mine.

During the sittings of the last Grand Lodge, I received from the Lodges, for their dues, the sum of $1092 00

And I have received during the year, for dues, the following amounts:

Dec. 18.	Balfour Lodge,	No. 188,		15 00
1863 26.	Joseph Warren,	92,	1861 and 1862,	30 00
Jan. 8.	Mount Moriah,	82,	1861 and 1862,	30 00
" 12.	Union,	173,	1862	15 00
" 17.	Cape Fear,	194,	1862,	15 00
March 26.	Warren,	101,	1861 and 1862,	30 00
June 12.	Mount Hermon,	118,	1863 in advance,	15 00
" 30.	Scotch Ireland,	154,		15 00
July 4.	Belmont,	108,	1860, '61 and '62,	45 00
" 24.	Fair Bluff,	190,	1861 and 1862,	$30 00
	Half of 12 Grand Lodge Cert.			3 00
July 29.	Mount Olivet,	195,	" " "	33 00
Oct. 27.	Hanks,	128,	1859, '60, '61, '62 and '63,	15 00
				75 00

For which I have the Grand Treasurer's receipt,

$1425 00

Some 27 Lodges are in arrears to the Grand Lodge for 3, 4 and 5 years, and it is very probable that several of this number have ceased to work entirely or have been suspended until the struggle now existing between the North and South shall finally terminate.

I sent one copy of our proceedings to the Grand Lodges of the Southern Confederacy, but few have reciprocated, the cause, no doubt growing out of the distracted state of the country.

Respectfully Submitted,

WILLIAM T. BAIN, Gr. Sec'y.

Bro. D. Tilley, of Knap of Reeds, No. 158, appointed Bro. L. Hobgood his proxy—(Tuscarora, No. 122.)

The Grand Treasurer submitted his annual report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Treasurer's accounts:

The Committee on the Grand Secretary's books and report, submitted the following report, which was read and unanimously adopted :

REPORT ON GRAND SECRETARY'S BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The undersigned Committee, appointed to examine the "Report and Books of the Grand Secretary," beg leave to report, that they have performed their duty and find that the report of the Grand Secretary, as presented to your Most Worshipful body last night, is correct, and that they find his books kept in a very neat and business-like manner.

Your Committee cannot let this opportunity pass of expressing the admiration of that zeal which has so signally distinguished our Grand Secretary through the arduous duties of 23 years, and think that your Grand Body should show some token of esteem for his past services, and beg leave to offer the following resolution :

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed, to present to Bro. Bain, at our next Communication, a Grand Secretary's Jewel, as a token of this Grand Body's esteem for his past services.

The Committee on the Grand Master's address, submitted the following report, which was read and adopted :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

The Committee to whom was referred the annual address of the Most Worshipful Master, have had the same under consideration, and report :

1st. That the Most Worshipful Grand Master's devotion to our Order, and the harmony and brotherly love which have prevailed under his administration, deserve our highest praise ; and we cannot but hope that the excellent tenets of our institution, so well set forth in the address, which have preserved us as a band of brothers amidst the disorder and contentions of the world, will not only be cherished by our brethren, but commend themselves to the virtuous and the excellent everywhere.

2nd. That they approve his declining to give Dispensations to form Lodges beyond the limits of North Carolina, in the army. 1st. Because it is beyond his jurisdiction, and 2nd, because, except in extraordinary cases, they doubt the propriety of forming "traveling Lodges," inasmuch as few cases can arise in which an applicant cannot be initiated in a stated Lodge, when at home on furlough or before his entering the army, when the several degrees can be much more safely conferred and the evidences much more surely preserved ; and inasmuch as every facility is afforded Masons in the army for conversation and instruction, without a Lodge as with it.

3rd. That while all our sympathy, as men is with those who have been mainmained in the service of their country, and while the benevolence of our Order reaches every human being who needs our assistance, yet we are obliged to say that the views of our Grand Master are in accordance with the ancient principles and the universal practice of our institution.

4th. That the postponement of the sale of St. John's College, was prudent and proper, and that the whole matter of said College is so important that the same ought to be referred to a special committee of five.

Respectfully submitted,

E. G. READE,

REPORT ON EXPULSIONS AND SUSPENSIONS.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Expulsions and Suspensions, within this jurisdiction, for the past year, having carefully considered the same, beg leave to submit the following, and recommend :

1st. That, although there is a little irregularity in the proceedings of Blackmer Lodge, No. 170, in the case of W. M. Keith, yet, owing to the enormity of the crime, and gross unamative conduct of the said Keith, that the action of the Lodge be sustained, and the said Keith be expelled from all the rites, benefits and privileges of Masonry.

2nd. In the case of James A. Keith, from Blackmer Lodge, No. 170, it does not appear from the returns, that any notification of charges has ever been served upon him by the Lodge; and the charges are not of such a character as to demand so extreme a penalty. The Committee, therefore, unanimously recommend that the decision of the Lodge be reversed.

3rd. That the action of Clinton Lodge, No. 124, in the case of J. J. Jackson, charged with habitual intoxication, be sustained, and that the said Jackson be declared expelled.

4th. That the case of W. J. Jones, from Granite Lodge, No. 191, be referred back to the Lodge for total informality and irregularity of proceedings.

REPORT RELATIVE TO RECEIVING PETITIONS OF CANDIDATES IN THE ARMY.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee to whom was referred the resolution "to report to this Grand Lodge the course to be pursued by Subordinate Lodges, in receiving the petitions of candidates when absent from home in the army," beg leave to report that they have investigated the subject and deem it only necessary to refer to Art. iv., Sec. 12th, of the Bye-Laws of this Grand Lodge, for the law on the subject. The only question is, whether the absence of a man in the army, temporarily, changes his residence? The opinion of your Committee is, that it does not.

Your Committee is further of opinion that it would be unsafe and highly injurious to our institution, to adopt the practice of admitting transient persons, except in strict accordance with Masonic law and usage.

REPORT ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence, to whom the case of Bro. Ferrell, of St. John's Lodge, No. 3, desiring to be admitted a member of Buffalo Lodge, No. 172, he being a member in full communion and fellowship with the aforesaid St. John's Lodge, respectfully report that he cannot be admitted as a member of Buffalo Lodge (not having obtained a demit from St. John's Lodge) for the reason that a Mason cannot be a member of two Lodges at the same time.

Upon the case which has been reported to your Committee, as having occurred between Phoenix Lodge, No. 8, and St. John's Lodge, No. 1, it has been thought advisable to make no report to this Grand Communication, and request the Most Worshipful Grand Master to appoint a Committee, whose duty it shall be to examine the testimony—each Lodge being represented—and report to the next Grand Lodge.

REPORT ON ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina :

The Committee appointed by the Grand Lodge, to consider and report upon the affairs of St. John's College, beg leave, respectfully, to report, that we do not recommend the sale of the College, but submit the following statement and recommendation :

The Financial Agent of this Fund is the Rev. Dr. Deems, a member of our fraternity. This fund is to be incorporated at the present session of the Legislature. We recommend that all the property held by the Trustees of St. John's College, be transferred to the Orphan Fund on the condition that this Grand Lodge shall have the same benefit from the fund as are secured to each individual donor, namely, one vote for every $50 thus given, and one beneficiary for every $2,500, the Orphan Fund to assume the debts of the College, and the Lodge to be credited for an amount equal to the cost of the property over and above the debts assumed by the Orphan Fund, and that a Committee of — be appointed on the part of the Grand Lodge, to consummate this arrangement.
